Poetry.

THE FADED LEAF.

Dearest to me that faded leaf,
That pines in yellow Autumn's bower,
Far dearer, than the springing flower—
I love to see it mount on high
And trace it through the yielding sky.
It points me to that moment brief,
When borne on plumelless wings of wind
The soul shall leave its clay behind,
And rise above the world of grief,
Like yonder autumn's faded leaf.

Yes, like thee, wanderer of the air,
Proud man with ruses may well compare!
Like thee he blooms his little hour,
Like thee the zephyr, drinks the shower!
Like thee he boasts his summer prime
And decks him in the robes of time!
Like thee, when comes the autumn blast,
His leafy hours too are cast.

Like thee, he leaves his stem behind
To journey on the viewless wind,
Fruit trailer through the trackless air,
Like thee he goes—he knows not where—
Yet Hope still cheers his untired road,
And Faith, untried, trusts to God.

Miscellaneous.

GOOD MAXIMS.

1. The world estimates men by their success in life, and by general consent, success is evidence of superiority.
2. Never, under any circumstances, assume a responsibility you can avoid consistently with your duty to yourself and others.
3. Base all your actions upon a rule of right; preserve your integrity of character, and, in doing this, never reckon on the cost.
4. Remember that self interest is more likely to warp your judgment than all other circumstances combined; therefore look well to your duty when your interest is concerned.
5. Never make money at the expense of your reputation.
6. Be neither lavish nor niggardly; of the two, avoid the latter. A mean man is universally despised; but public favor is a stepping stone to preferment—therefore generous feelings should be cultivated.
7. Let your expense be such as to leave a balance in your pocket. Ready money is a friend in need.
8. Keep clear of the law; for, when you gain your case, you are generally a loser of money.
9. Never relate your misfortunes, and never grieve over what you cannot prevent.
10. No man who owes as much as he can pay, has any moral right to endorse for another.—Hunt's Magazine.

A Few Words for Children.—You were made to be kind, generous and magnanimous. If there is a boy in school who has a club foot, don't let him know that you ever saw it. If there's a boy with ragged clothes, don't talk about rags when he is in hearing. If there is a lame boy, assign him some part of the game which does not require running. If there is a hungry one, give him a part of your dinner. If there is a dull one, help him to get his lesson. If there is a bright one, be not envious of him; for if one boy is proud of his talents, and another is envious of them, there are two great wrongs, and no more talents than before. If a larger and stronger boy has injured you, and is sorry for it, forgive him, and ask the teacher not to punish him. All the school will show by their countenances how much better it is to have a great soul than a great fist.

The Heart.—The little I have seen of the world and know of the history of mankind, teaches me to look upon the errors of others in sorrow not in anger. When I take the history of one poor heart that has sinned and suffered, and represent to myself the struggles and temptations it has passed through; the brief pulsations of joy; the feverish inquietude of hope and fear; the pressure of want; the desertion of friends; the scorn of the world that has little charity; the desolation of the soul's sanctuary, and threatening vices within—health gone—happiness gone—I would fain leave the crying soul of my fellow man with Him from whose hands it came.—Longfellow.

Principles of Religion.—Those who cry down moral honesty, cry down that which is a great part of religion—my duty toward God, and my duty toward man. What care I to see a man run after a sermon, if he cozen and cheat as soon as he comes home? On the other side, morality must not be without religion; for, if so, it may change as I see convenient. Religion must govern us. He that has not religion to govern his morality, is no better than my mastiff dog; so long as you smooth and please him, and do not pinch him, he will play with you as finely as may be. He is a very good moral mastiff, but as soon as you hurt him, he will fly in your face and tear your throat.

A good book and a good woman are excellent things for those who know how to appreciate their value. There are men, however, who judge both from the beauty of their cover.

A hen-pecked husband says that instead of he and his wife being one, they are ten: for she is 1 and he is 9.

WOMAN IN THE CELESTIAL EMPIRE.

Woman is in a more degraded position in China, than in any other part of the globe, and her humiliation is rendered more conspicuous by the extent to which civilization and education have been carried in the empire. In no rank is she regarded as the companion of man, but is treated solely as the slave of his caprice and passions. Even among the females of the higher ranks, few are found who can read or write; their education is confined to the art of embroidery, playing on a horrid three-stringed guitar, and singing; but the obligation of obedience to man is early inculcated, and the greater portion of their time is spent in smoking and playing at cards. The women of the poorer classes have no education, and can be considered but little better than beasts of burden. A man of that rank will walk deliberately by his wife's side while she totters under a heavy load, and frequently she may be seen yoked to a heavy plough, while her husband guides it! Those of the lower classes, who are good-looking, according to Chinese ideas of beauty, are purchased by the rich, at about twelve or fourteen years, as concubines, and are then instructed according to their master's ideas. The Chinese cannot at all comprehend the European mode of treating ladies with respect and deference, and being naturally superstitious, attribute to devilish arts, practised by the fair sex, the just appreciation we entertain of their value: in short, they consider European ladies have an influence somewhat similar to that ascribed to an evil eye, by Italian superstition. Chinese domestics have a very great objection to reside in a European family over which a lady presides; and an old tradition of theirs curiously coincides with their superstition about our females—that China should never be conquered until a woman reigned in the far West. Some say that this prophecy was never heard of until they were conquered by the army of Queen Victoria. Be this as it may, they all contend that it is to be found in some of their oldest works.

Discovery of Mummies at Durango, Mexico.

The Texas Star states that a million mummies have been discovered on the environs of Durango, in Mexico. They are in a sitting posture, but have the same wrappings, bands, and ornaments as the Egyptians. Among them was found a sculptured head, with a poniard of flint, chaplets, necklaces, &c., of alternate colored beads, fragments of bone polished like ivory, fine worked elastic tissues, (probably like those of our modern India rubber cloth,) moccasins worked like those of our Indians today, bones of vipers, &c. It remains to continue these interesting researches, and America will become another Egypt to antiquaries, and her ruins will go back to the oldest period of the world, showing, doubtless, that the ancestors of the Montezumas lived on the Nile.

Pretty Good.

The New Jersey Union tells a good story of a young man engaged to be married. On the night of the great occasion it chanced to rain terribly, and when the guests were assembled they were astonished to find that the groom was not there. After waiting a long time, a committee of three was detailed to go over to his house and inquire what had happened. They found him thrashing in the barn, as if nothing important was on hand. They made known their errand. Jake dropped his flail and lifted up both hands, while his eyes and mouth became considerably enlarged. He approached the barn door, and looking alternately at the clouds and at the young men, exclaimed, "Goodness gracious, Bill! you don't really think it will go on, do you?"

A Keen Retort.—A writer in the Georgetown Baptist Herald says: "A preacher, not one hundred miles from this place, while contending, as he thought, for the 'ancient order of things,' by ridiculing the doctrine of a call to the ministry, as a proof that there is no such call, observed, that he never believed he was called to preach. 'And no person else ever believed it,' said an acquaintance standing by."

The Last Cheat.—During the late eclipse of the moon, some needy individuals of Philadelphia posted themselves in Chestnut street, with a portable observatory, in which they had mounted and arranged a stove pipe, or something similar, for taking an observation of the phenomenon. Six pence a sight was charged, and many persons were thus gulled.

Vulgarity.—A good story was told us, the other day, of an answer given by a returned volunteer, who was stumping along the street with but one leg, to a saucy, impertinent coxcomb, who asked him, "How the deuce he happened to lose his leg?"

"Why," said he, "it's getting very vulgar now to walk on two legs—every body does it—so I took mine off."

The new manufacturing city of Manchester, N. H., has now a population of 13,000, where only twelve years ago there were but two houses.

A French Bedstead for Old Zack.—The following humorous resolution was adopted at a Whig meeting in New York on Monday evening:

Resolved, That if the conqueror of the Rio Grande, and Buena Vista, "has not slept," as his enemies say, "in a civilized bed for forty years," it is because he has been keeping watch and ward in the service of his country; and it is quite time that he should have a chance at one of those French bedsteads in the White House, which were placed there by his Democratic competitors for the Presidency.

Adventure of a Letter.—The Stamford (Eng.) Mercury, says: "Sometime since, a letter containing bills of exchange amounting to £5,000, was posted in London, addressed to a banking firm at Boston. The word 'Lincolnshire' being omitted from the address, the letter was put into the American bag, and crossed the Atlantic to Boston in Massachusetts. No owner being found, Brother Jonathan honestly returned the letter, and it reached its proper destination, Messrs. Gee & Co's, Boston, Lincolnshire, after twice traversing the Atlantic, and having caused a journey to London, and a long and anxious correspondence."

Who Suffers?—A woman was lately convicted in Philadelphia of an assault and battery on her husband, and was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, so that the husband had better have taken the whipping quietly, as he now suffers in purse and person.

No More than Right.—Louis Philpott has applied to the French Government for the restoration of a portion of his private funds; and it is understood that a comfortable allowance will be granted; but not enough to allow him to indulge in political intrigues.

Forty young females, from the ages of 14 to 18, were removed from the Sligo Union workhouse (Ireland) lately, to proceed immediately on their voyage to Australia, where they were sent out as emigrants, at government expense.

"Old Grimes is Dead!"—Mr. John Grimes died at Swansey, N. H. on the 8th ult., aged 82. This could not have been "old Grimes," for we know he died many years ago. His son, no doubt.

More of the "Buffalo Hunt!"—A notice to the Buffalo Hunters, in the New Orleans Delta of the 31st ult., states that "the Chiefs of the Legions of the Order, will assemble in that city during the coming week, to make the necessary arrangements preparatory to the Buffalo Hunt upon the banks of the Rio Grande this fall."

The N. Y. Courier of Saturday says: "The ship Finland, from Liverpool, which arrived at this port yesterday, had on board thirty-five orphan children, entirely destitute of means. They were placed on board by some persons unknown, and being utterly unprovided for, the Commissioners of Emigration took them in charge."

A Singular Genius.—A man in Newark, New Jersey, named Palmer, has published an essay against the use of money. He says it is "an engine only of evil," for two years he has declined to receive or use it; and he is now convinced that it is the duty of all to adopt a course which will supersede the use of it.

Uncle Sam's Provisions.—At a large sale in St. Louis on the 11th, crackers which cost the government six or eight cents per pound, were sold at one, and Uncle Sam's mess pork sold at $4 87, while

The Pennsylvania makes a great ado over the following "secret circular" which it has surreptitiously obtained, and which it represents as developing a plot of unequalled atrocity. It strikes us as a most excellent letter, embodying advice in the highest degree important, and suited not only to the meridian of Pennsylvania, but of the whole Union.

We therefore give it an insertion:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12, 1848.

DEAR SIR—Permit me in behalf of the Whig Executive Committee of the two Houses of Congress, to address you on the approaching elections, State and National, in Pennsylvania. To make our success certain in the great National contest, we need the vote of Pennsylvania, and I presume I shall stand justified by the vast importance of the crisis, in asking you to take hold of the subject with all possible vigor. We trust you will spare no pains in carrying your State election. Recollect the success of Governor Johnson will break down Cass throughout the country. But if the Democratic candidate for Governor must be elected, you will see even the importance of cutting down his majority to a very low figure. The moment your State election is over, I beg you and (through you) your friends to go to work in earnest for the November election. Pennsylvania we can and must have. Never has there been so good an opportunity for striking a successful blow at the radical party, as now. I shall work until November. I ask you to work with me. We can furnish good political matter from our Committee-room if applied for this month. Let me hear from you as to prospects in your part of Pennsylvania.

With much respect,
I am truly your friend,
TRUMAN SMITH.

On Tuesday night last, the Clay men in New York city convened in Vauxhall Garden, to receive the letter of Mr. Clay declining the use of his name as a candidate for the Presidency, and to hear the report of their Executive Committee. The Committee now recommend an abandonment of their distinctive organization, and strongly advise all Whigs to support Taylor and Fillmore, and the regular Whig nominees. Horace Greeley, John M. Botts, and others, addressed the meeting. Mr. Botts pronounced the recent letter of Gen. Taylor satisfactory, and announced his intention to vote for the Old Hero! The Whigs of New York will now go harmoniously to work, and give the electoral vote of the State to Gen. Taylor by a majority of 85,000 or 100,000.

Several persons have been lately arrested on the charge of being implicated in the robbery of Mr. Darlington, President of the Chester County Bank, some time ago, and from one of them $11,600 of the money stolen was recovered. The rogues have hitherto managed to keep themselves concealed, but have been caught at last.

A little child, only daughter of Mr. Young, of Philadelphia county, 18 months old, was drowned yesterday week, in a small trough, 8 or 10 inches in depth, placed beneath the pump to catch the waste water. It had been playing about, and fell into the trough.—Death seems, indeed, to be every where, and in every thing, where least expected.

There is a chestnut tree now growing in Philadelphia county, which measures thirty-four feet seven inches around, three feet from the ground, and still looks thrifty and likely to make a fine large tree some day to work up into fence posts.

Retribution.—It has been ascertained that among the unfortunate passengers who lost their lives by the burning of the splendid vessel, the Ocean Monarch, were a Mr. Bacon and a Mrs. Walter, persons in respectable standing in London, who were eloping together to America, both of them married persons, with families of young children, all of whom were left behind, but the youngest child of Mrs. Walker. Retribution overtook them soon.

Great Whig Meeting in Georgia.—Ten thousand Whigs, with music, banners, and illuminations, assembled at Atlanta, Ga., on the 14th ult., and were addressed by Berrien, Ex-Gov. Crawford, Toombs, Dawson, and Stephens. Mr. Berrien's speech was a powerful effort. The appearance of Mr. Stephens upon the platform, was the occasion of the most intense excitement ever known in Georgia. He was not well enough to make a speech. He spoke a few moments, and said all he asked of the people was "that they would vote for Old Zack."

The Approach of the Cholera.—A communication from the Board of Health of Philadelphia was presented to the New York Board on Tuesday. It related the re-appearance of the Asiatic cholera in Europe, and the possibility of its reaching this country, and suggested that a committee be appointed to visit Europe for the purpose of obtaining information in relation to it, and to learn what sanitary regulations are there considered most efficient to prevent its spreading.—The communication was referred to a special committee.

Singular Death.—In Brighton, England, Robert Haffenden, sen., ate a plum from a tree in his garden, in which was a wasp, that stung him in the throat, and caused his death in three quarters of an hour.

An immense Whig meeting was held in the city of New York on Wednesday evening last—at which at least 20,000 persons were present. Judge Kent presided, assisted by 36 Vice Presidents, and 18 Secretaries. There was great enthusiasm, and the multitude were addressed from three different stands.—Strong resolutions were adopted, in favor of Taylor and Fillmore, and against Cass and Van Buren, declaring that on Free Soil the party stood where it had always stood, and would not desert their position for another, supported by a single prop, and that of doubtful character. Mr. Clay's course was warmly applauded, and his patriotism extolled. His decision but endears him the more to the Whig party, and his example is worthy of imitation by others. Gen. Leslie Coombs made a long, able and eloquent speech, amidst great applause. A resolution was passed in favor of protection to manufacturers, as another plank to the Whig platform. "The good work goes bravely on."

ABANDONMENT OF CASS.

The Democracy of Clarion for Taylor—The most Important Defection yet.

Clarion county, heretofore one of the strongholds of Locofocoism, which has always been considered safe for 1200 to 1400 majority for locofocoism, has at last shown evidence of a determination to revolt against the party which has done so much to deceive and ruin Pennsylvania. A number of the most distinguished democrats of that county have repudiated the Baltimore nominees and are now supporting Taylor and Fillmore.

We find in the Clarion Register a long address, signed by Christian Myers and twelve other "supporters of the Democratic party," declaring their abandonment of the party which has abandoned the "Protective Policy," and their determination to support "the nominees of the Philadelphia Convention." Judge Myers, it will be remembered, was a Polk elector in 1844; and the other twelve signers are men of perhaps equal note and influence in the ranks of our opponents. They come up nobly to the rescue of their State and country; and, as there are thousands in Pennsylvania who think and feel like themselves, their example will be contagious.

A snow storm prevailed throughout the northern part of the State of New York, New England and the Canadas, on the night of last Friday week. This will account for our cold spell of weather.

What can be done in this great State, if those who prefer to sustain its Agriculture, and great staples of Coal and Iron, will put forth their whole strength? We can have a Whig Legislature, a Whig Governor, and a Whig Canal Commissioner. We can have a Whig President and Vice President, sustained by the vote of the Keystone State. We can light up all the extinguished fires of our now gloomy Iron Works; we can increase the hum of the cheering spindle; we can save the State hundreds and thousands of dollars of tolls on the canals. Above all, we can send comfort into the lowly cottage and workshop, where now there is deep sorrow and pining for want of work. All this we can do if we will. But it cannot be done without industry, and a determination to sustain each other. We must send forth the missiles of truth to tell the people what it is that is spreading a blight and mildew over the face of this great and glorious State. We must give light to the honest, hard-working men, the bone and sinew of the Republic, by a dissemination, through all our newspapers, of the facts of every day occurrence, which prove that Locofocoism is neglecting every home interest, and sustaining the vicious insinuations of degraded Europe. If we fail to do these things, the fault will be our own, should the Locofoco doctrines prevail, and fasten upon us a foreign policy, which, while it degrades freemen, builds up our foreign rivals, and leaves Pennsylvania in idleness and its invariable concomitants, poverty and misery among the working classes.—Daily News.

The Buffalo Hunt.—We hear less recently of the rumored Buffalo Hunt, the real object of which is supposed to be, to revolutionize the Mexican provinces on the Rio Grande, and convert them nominally into an independent Republic, with a purpose of causing their annexation to these United States. Whether the project has found less favor with the Mexicans at Tampico and elsewhere, or encountered unforeseen difficulties at home, or whether both these causes have had weight, is not known; but it seems to be understood that, for the present at least, there is a pause in the undertaking. It is to be hoped that it may be abandoned altogether, as good faith on the part of the United States towards Mexico requires that it should be.

Volunteer's Luck.—Among the inmates of the Third Ward Station House, says the New York Sun, was a Mexican volunteer, who sold his warrant on Wednesday morning for seventy-five dollars, bought a galvanized watch, "went upon a spree," and at 9 o'clock at night was lying drunk upon the pavement, without a cent of money or a place to sleep in.

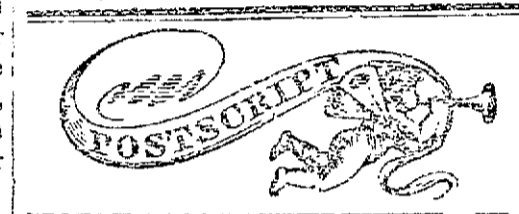

Branch of Promise of Marriage.—We learn from the Chestertown News, that Mrs. Sarah Campbell obtained a verdict in Kent county (Md.) court, last week, of $1,500 damages from Samuel Ringgold, for a breach of marriage. The swain was about 75 years old. The love letters read in the case were particularly amusing and amusing.

From the Albany Evening Journal of Sept. 20. "THE WORK GOES BRAVELY ON!" "All's Well!"—The dissensions which temporarily threatened the unity of the Whig party in this State are healed.—The discordant notes which were heard for a time are lost in the pleasant harmony produced by the letters recently received from Messrs. Clay and Taylor. The Whig party in this State will now present an unbroken front. We go into the contest united. The result of this union will be victory.

The partisans of Gen. Cass are disappointed. The hopes excited by the movements in favor of Mr. Clay are crushed. They now wholly despair of securing the electoral vote of this State, and without it they are lost. Vermont and Maine have demonstrated the steadfastness of the Whigs of New England, while the free-soil agitation is shaking Cassism to its centre in Wisconsin, Michigan and Illinois. Even Ohio will yet come out from behind the cloud.—Though the free-soil question is a two-edged sword, it appears every where to cut deepest into the Locofoco ranks.—Whigs are well enough where they are, but Locofocos are not.

Every Whig knows that in going with his party he goes for free-soil; but no man whose conscience is not seared believes that a vote for Cass will be a vote for freedom. Those, therefore, who class themselves with the Locofoco party, and who favor the sacred principles of free labor, can only give expression to their preference by voting for Van Buren.

We repeat that "all's well!" The skies are bright. "All the clouds that lowered o'er our house are in the deep bosom of the ocean buried!" The Whig watch fires are being every where kindled, and before the 7th of November the Whigs of New York and of the Union will be prepared to make a vigorous, enthusiastic, and successful charge upon the advocates of war, conquest and slavery.

Governor Johnston.

Governor JOHNSTON passed through Chambersburg, for the West, on Wednesday last, and addressed a meeting there in the Evening—and gave notice that he would meet his fellow-citizens of Franklin county, and others who might feel disposed to attend, in CHAMBERSBURG, on FRIDAY NEXT, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Those citizens of Adams county, who may feel a desire to hear the Governor on the stump, will thus have a favorable opportunity. An invitation has been sent to us from our friends of Franklin, and we hope many may find it convenient and agreeable to attend.

The N. York Tribune, of which Horace Greeley is the Editor, who was at the head of the Clay movement, appeared on Friday morning with the Taylor and Fillmore flag in bold characters at the head of its columns.

Important from Europe.

The steamer America arrived at New York on Friday afternoon, in 13 days from Liverpool. She brings important intelligence.

The rebellion in Ireland has unexpectedly broke out, and the people were rising in every quarter. Their main force is on the Thomas mountains, under command of Doheney, the patriot leader.—In Kilkenny there was a force of insurgents to the amount of 4,000, encamped on Albany Hill. The leaders are men of military experience. The peasantry are principally armed with pikes, and regularly drilled in the use of that weapon. The police had been attacked at several stations, and had fled. The excitement is spreading like wild fire throughout the whole Island, and it is believed the rebellion will be general.

The latest advices from Paris are not very satisfactory. The Socialists are mustering in their strength. The Government were about taking measures to close all the clubs throughout France.

Tuscany has been the scene of frightful disorder. At Leghorn the populace rose on the 2d of Sept. in consequence of attempts being made to put down the political clubs. A conflict ensued, and 112 soldiers were killed on the spot. The cholera has appeared in the Grecian Islands.

The Flour and Cotton markets were about stationary, but there was a decline in Wheat and Corn.

A stout, fine-looking fellow, at Washington City, Michael Connan, had been troubled with chills, and requested Dr. Thomas to give him something to check them. The Dr. gave him a prescription to obtain from the Apothecary—but, lamentable to relate, instead of writing quinine, as he intended, he wrote morphine. Mr. Connan took the fifteen grains ordered, between 12 and 1 o'clock on Friday morning, and retired to bed.—At 5 o'clock, he was found a lifeless corpse. The quantity of morphine taken was enough to kill a dozen men.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PUBLIC SALE.

On Saturday the 18th of November next, THE subscriber will positively sell in Taneytown, at the Public Square, the following valuable Real Estate, situated in Carroll county, Maryland, to wit:

NO. 1.

A FARM,

containing

200 Acres of Land,

two miles north of Taneytown, on the main road leading from Gettysburg, Pa., to Baltimore city. This farm is handsomely situated, well watered, convenient to Mills, Churches and Schools. Two-thirds of which is cleared land, under fence, and the balance in first-rate TIMBER. The improvements consist of a

DOUBLE LOG HOUSE,

DAIRY, and a large LOG BARN, in good order, with shedding attached.

NO. 2.

A FARM,

containing 125 ACRES, unimproved,—adjoining No. 1. This property is beautifully situated, well watered, and has an abundance of first-rate TIMBER, and other material thereon for building. About 40 acres are cleared, and the balance in the best of Timber.

NO. 3.

A Tract of first-rate WOODLAND.

adjoining the other two tracts, containing 50 ACRES, which will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, or, if desired, the three tracts will be sold together.

NO. 4.—A Tract of Land, adjoining Taneytown on the North, known as the Cromwell lot, containing TEN ACRES.

NO. 5.—A Lot of Land, adjoining Taneytown on the North, known as the Chapter lot, containing FIVE ACRES.

NO. 6.—The Two Acre Lot, situated in Taneytown, on York street, now in the occupancy of Michael Chapadelle.

NO. 7.—THE BRICK HOUSE, and LOT OF GROUND, adjoining No. 6, in which Michael Chapadelle resides. This property would be desirable to a mechanic wishing to go into the Blacksmith, Wagon or Carriage-making business, as there is a good opening for either of the above to an enterprising man.—There is a large new FRAME BLACKSMITH SHOP, with two fires therein, on the property. Also, a good well of water in the yard, and a number of bearing FRUIT TREES of every variety.

NO. 8.—That Store House and valuable property, situated on the North West corner of the Square in Taneytown, now in the occupancy of Levi Bullington, Esq.—This property is the best business stand in the town, and is desirable on that account. Any person wishing to commence merchandising in the County, would do well to look at the above property, as perhaps there is no town in the State of the same population and as little enterprise, with as many goods.

Also, at the same time, I will sell that Valuable on which Jacob Newcomer resides, known as the "Fruit Farm," situated on the main road leading from Taneytown to Chambersburg, nearly equally distant between the two places. This property contains under good fencing, well watered, and in a good state of cultivation. The improvements are a good Two Story

LOG HOUSE,

with a BACK BUILDING, a Spring House near the dwelling, a Double LOG BARN, Cow Stable, and a first-rate with a great variety of Fruit Trees.

It is unnecessary to say more, as it is expected that persons wishing to purchase will view the property for themselves. The subscriber will take pleasure in showing the property and giving any information to persons by calling on him at his residence, near Taneytown.

An early, portable title will be given, and the sale positive and without reserve.

A. G. EGGE,

Oct. 2.

CORONER'S SALE.

In pursuance of a writ of Fieri Facias, (Inquisition and condemnation being waived,) issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Adams county, Pa., and to me directed, will be exposed to Public Sale.

On Friday the 13th of October, 1848, at 1 o'clock, p. m., on the premises, in Menallen township, the following Real Estate, to wit:

A TRACT OF LAND,

situate in Menallen township, Adams county, Pa., containing

16 ACRES, more or less, of first rate Land, on which are erected a one and a half story

WEATHERBOARDED DWELLING HOUSE,

with every convenience—good Double Log Barn, a good Two-story TAN HOUSE, with a first rate Bark-Shed and Bark-Mill thereon.—Also, a finishing shop and Leather Roller, with 16 lay-away Vats—the whole of the Vats, &c. being in the best condition. There is a well of water near the dwelling, and an excellent ORCHARD of Apples and Peaches. The land is all cleared—about 5 acres being in Meadow Land, and the balance in a good state of cultivation. The property is in good order, with a running stream of water near the Tan-Yard, and adjoins lands of Peter Studebaker, Nicholas Slaybaugh, Jacob Smith, and Levi Grist, and lies on the direct road leading from Hunterstown to Pine Grove Furnace, about one and a half miles from Duterra's Mill, and within one half mile of Apples' Mill. Seized and taken in execution as the Estate of ELI COVER.

J. N. SMITH, Coroner.

FROM EUROPE.

The steamer Acadia has arrived at Boston, with European intelligence seven days later.

The steamship United States left Cowes for New York on the 3d Sept., with eighty passengers and a large cargo, and proceeded as far as the Scilly Islands, when an accident to her machinery occurred, and she put back to Southampton.

The weather continued fine in Great Britain, and the grain market had declined to almost the entire extent of the recent advance.

Ireland was tranquil. Queen Victoria was on a visit to Scotland.

France was tranquil, with the exception of some local disturbances in the Provinces.

The mediation of France and England for the settlement of the Italian question had been accepted by Austria.

FRANCE.

The Bonapartists are moving both in Paris and in the departments, with the view of electing Louis Bonaparte to the Presidency of the Republic.

The local disturbances in the Provinces continue. They arise principally from an extraordinary tax of forty-five centimes, imposed on the people by the Provisional Government.

The latest advices from Paris, received by the London papers, announce the important intelligence that the French Government on the 7th ult. received despatches from M. Arago, the French Minister at Berlin, announcing officially that Austria has accepted the mediation of France and England for the settlement of the Italian question.

On the 5th ult. the garrison of Paris and a portion of the national guard were reviewed on the Boulevards by Gen. Cavaignac, who was loudly cheered.—Between 70,000 and 80,000 were under arms, of whom about 20,000 belonged to the national guard, only one battalion being called out from each legion.

The accounts from Italy and Rome state that the whole country is in a disturbed and excited state. Tumults had occurred at Genoa, Leghorn, and Rome, which were suppressed with the greatest difficulty.

A letter from Turin, under date of the 2d ult., states that the Austrians having levied a contribution of four hundred thousand florins (£32,000) on the city of Parma, payable in twenty-four hours, and the sum not being forthcoming at the designated time, the army, according to custom, commenced pillaging the city. The inhabitants, however, encouraged by the patriotic defence of the town of Bologna, rung the tocsin, and, flying to arms, a fearful battle commenced.—Even the women and children took part in the defence of the city, throwing furniture and other missiles from the windows upon the heads of the Austrian troops. The population of the surrounding country were hurrying in to the assistance of the citizens. The result of the struggle has not been ascertained.

New York, Sept. 25.

The private accounts by the Acadia have been received here. They embrace transactions in Liverpool on the 9th, up to the moment of her sailing.—On that day there was an improved feeling in breadstuffs. Best American flour was firm at 34 shillings per barrel. Indian corn advanced three shillings per quarter of 480 lbs., and was firm at 33 to 36 shillings. Wheat had also advanced four pence per 70 lbs. Barings' Circular states that rice had declined considerably, and the market was dull. The private letters are considered much more favorable than the published accounts.

Oat Meal.—The Journal de Quebec, speaking of the great abundance of the oat crops this year in Lower Canada, says that the present very low price of this article is not likely to be of very long continuance, it having been proposed to export considerable quantities in the shape of meal to Ireland, as a substitute for the failing potato crop. It contains much more nutritious matter than the potato, and was, before the introduction of wheat into many parts of Scotland, the principal food of a large number of the inhabitants.

Starved to Death.—An English family lately arrived in Cincinnati in a destitute condition, but concealed their circumstances from their neighbors until the father and mother were nearly starved to death. When discovered they had eaten nothing for three days. The father died next day, and the mother a few days after. The three children, thus left destitute, were adopted by benevolent citizens.

Arrival of a Hero.—The packet ship New World arrived at New York from Liverpool on Friday, with six hundred and thirty-two passengers. On board of the New World is the heroic Frederick Jerome, who saved fifteen lives from the Ocean Monarch, and whose heroism has been honored by receiving from the authorities of New York, the freedom of the city, in a gold box. Subscriptions from the merchants, now amounting to about $2,000, are also to be given him.

Spots on the Sun.—A correspondent of the Alexandria States that there is an unusual number of spots at present visible on the Sun's disc. One dark cavern in particular, now near the centre of the Sun, and distinctly visible through a smoked glass, is upwards of sixty thousand miles in diameter. This will be visible for about a week longer. Besides this, there are about four other large clusters.

ADAMS SENTINEL.
GETTYSBURG:
Monday, October 2, 1848.
FOR PRESIDENT,
GEN. Z. TAYLOR,
OF LOUISIANA.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
MILLARD FILLMORE,
OF NEW YORK.

The question will come up before the next Congress, and must be settled, whether Slavery shall be prohibited by Congress in the Territory, now free, derived from Mexico—in other words, whether the further spread of this evil must not be checked. It is an important question, and one which will most likely absorb every other. Our present Representative, Dr. Nes, has, upon all occasions, in the most decided manner expressed by his votes his opposition to the further extension of Slavery—while the Locofoco doctrine, of which Mr. Danner is the exponent, is to leave it entirely to the Territories to settle the matter. Thus the slave-holder from the Southern States will emigrate into the new Territory with his slaves, which increase rapidly—and in a short time, when they have the majority, they will apply for admission into the Union, with Slavery introduced into their constitution—and the area of this evil is extended over a vast amount of new Territory. Thus it goes—and this, it is very evident, has been the great object of the South from the annexation of Texas to the war with Mexico—the spread of Slave Territory. Now we think, and the whole Whig party of the North, together with a large portion of the Democracy, think it is high time that a stop should be put to the extension of Slavery into territory now free—and the matter will, beyond a doubt, be settled by the next Congress. One vote may be of great importance. Think of this matter, then, Whigs of Adams! Your Representative, Dr. Nes, goes upon the broad principle that Slavery should be checked in its further progress—not to interfere with it in States where it now exists—but to prohibit it in territory now free, acquired from Mexico. Mr. Danner goes with the politicians of the Baltimore platform, that it should be left to the territories themselves to determine. Free men! Friends of Liberty! choose you between these two men! If Slavery is an evil, and its further extension to be deprecated, say so by your votes!

Money at Work.

It is said that a large amount of money has been raised, and is lavishly expended in this District, to endeavor to carry it for the Free Trade candidate, Mr. DANNER. The York Advocate of Tuesday says, that the friends of Mr. Danner boast of having received from Washington FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS for this purpose. If this be so, things have come to a pretty pass, indeed—when independent voters are to be bought by the gold of the government! We have no doubt that the "powers that be" at Washington would very much desire to see our straight-forward, honest, Free Soil, Tariff candidate, Dr. Nes, defeated, and one of their own kidney, such as Mr. Danner, placed in his room; but we can hardly think it possible that they would have so contemptible an opinion of the intelligence and virtue of the people of this District, as to venture upon such an experiment. They will surely not attempt it in Adams—they know better. If they do in York, they should be spurned with indignity by every free-man.

Friends of Protection to American Industry! Be up and doing! Every effort is being made by the Free Trade, British Tariff party to defeat Dr. Nes—and it behooves you to work! As the Advocate very justly remarks—"The lines are clearly marked, and the Tariff-man who casts his vote for Danner, assists in rubbing himself and nation with his eyes open"—and it is therefore our duty to see that every man votes intelligently and from due reflection—and that no one from personal friendship, should sacrifice the best interests of his country. To the polls, then! And see, too, that your honest and patriotic neighbor is there also!

The Free Trade Tariff.

As a specimen of the effects of the Tariff of 1846, which Mr. DANNER is in favor of, we observe in the Philadelphia Daily News, an advertisement of Wm. H. Beebe & Co. offering for sale a splendid assortment of Castor and Beaver Hats for children, just from Paris, and one of L. C. Gilbert, offering a large assortment of Pickles, Sauces, Ketchups, &c. just from London. Now this is just a specimen of how the system of Free Trade works. These matters, which our own Mechanics could make, and our own wives and daughters prepare, are imported from Europe, and our money must be sent there to pay for them, instead of being kept at home to circulate amongst ourselves. It appears to us so plain that Protection to American Industry is the true interest of the country, as the facts staring us in the face every day clearly show, that we cannot conceive how any Pennsylvania caudillate would dare to throw his vote—Dr. Nes is the friend of the Protective Tariff of '46. The course, then, is a very plain one. Do your duty to your country, fellow-citizens, no matter what your personal predilections may be—and you will have an approving conscience, and the result be as it may.

The Gold Medal voted by Congress to Gen. Taylor, was presented to him at Pass Christian on the 13th of September, by Mr. Charles Harrod, to whom the Secretary of War had committed the delivery. A number of distinguished persons were present, and the ceremonies on the occasion were deeply interesting.

The Alumni Association of Marshall College, at Mercersburg, have issued proposals to publish a Literary and Theological Journal, to be entitled the "Mercersburg Review"—Dr. Nes is to be the Editor. Its price, $3 per year.

The County Ticket.

So far as we can learn from different parts of the country, there is a pretty general disposition on the part of the Whigs to support the WHOLE SETTLED TICKET—with the exception of one portion of the county, in which it is said that Mr. FICKES, an independent candidate for Sheriff will receive some Whig support. How Whigs can reconcile such a course to their consciences, we cannot see. Mr. Fickes pledged himself to abide by the decision of the Convention, in the strongest language. He failed to obtain a nomination—his opponent, Col. Swope, being honestly and fairly chosen. It was then his duty, as an honorable man, to have held out the right hand of fellowship to the successful candidate, and yielded him his warm and ardent support. Instead of that, unlike the noble-hearted Harry of the West, he listens to the siren song of the Locofoco leaders, and comes out, a candidate, forgetful of, or disregarding, his pledged faith! And now he asks: Whigs to support him—Whigs who have a fairly settled Ticket of their own, settled according to party usages, and of good and competent men—and this, too, at a time when, if ever, Whigs should move together in solid phalanx to save the Government from misrule and corruption! It cannot be that any Whig will so far lose sight of his duty, as to desert his party at this crisis.—It would be a crying shame, that the "Young Guard," whose character now stands so high among her sister Counties, should have any of her candidates shorn of even a portion of their majority. Think of it, Whigs of Adams! And if any of you have even hesitated as to your course in this matter, break loose from those who are luring you on to distract the party, and give your warm and earnest support for the WHOLE WHIG TICKET—not a name stricken, or a line defaced!

It has been rumored that Old Menallen, that staunch Whig township, which has rolled out, and can roll out, such glorious majorities for the good cause, is a little wrong about one or two of the candidates on the settled Whig Ticket. It cannot surely be, that at this crisis of affairs, when we want every good and true Whig to march shoulder to shoulder in the contest that is before us, that any Whig will straggle from the line, and be picked up by the guerillas that are hovering around, thus weakening our force upon the day of battle! We say, we can scarcely believe it possible. We know the Whigs of Menallen—and we know them to be deeply interested in the advancement of correct political principles. We know they will roll out a glorious majority for HONEST OLD ZACK—and why they should scatter their forces now, as they advance to battle, appears to us surprising. If victory is to be achieved, we must keep together in solid column until the 10th of October, the day on which we shall meet the front rank of the enemy—give them a united fire from the whole Whig army—scatter them like the leaves of the forest in the autumn north-westerns—on the 7th of November pour in "a little more grape"—and Locofocoism will be but as "a thing that once was."

Whigs of Menallen! Let none of your fire be turned upon your friends—we want it all for the enemy—we want to see Locofocoism and its adherents scattered to the four winds. Go for the Whig Ticket—the whole Ticket—and NOTHING BUT THE TICKET!

WHIGS! BE ON YOUR GUARD!

We learned, a few days ago, that a very cunning scheme is on foot to obtain votes for some of the Locofoco candidates—and it behooves Whigs to be on the alert, and not suffer themselves to be overreached in the matter. A Locofoco in Gettysburg made a proposition to a Whig, that if he, (the Whig,) would vote for Mr. Danner and Mr. Fickes, he (the loco.) would vote for any two of the Whig ticket that might be named. The same proposition has been made in another quarter, as we learn—so that we presume it is part of a regular plan to break in on the Whig ticket. Make no bargains of this kind, Whigs! You can elect your whole Ticket without the assistance of the locofocos: and every vote you bargain away is so much loss to the good cause, and gain to these cunning politicians! Shun all propositions of the kind! Go to the polls, as good honest Whigs, and vote for your whole Whig ticket: and let these smooth-tongued politicians see that you are not to be deceived by their soft speeches and their kind attentions.

During the famine demand for our agricultural products in Europe, the Locofoco papers were filled with eulogies upon the Tariff of 1846. They attributed that demand to the influence of that act, and cited the high prices paid for wheat, corn, oats, &c., as evidence of the utility and wisdom of Free Trade. But the prospect of a fair crop has "spiked this artillery." Prices have rapidly fallen. The farmer no longer feels the benign influence of Free Trade. He hears of continued heavy importations of foreign manufactures, but he has no information of unusual exportation of agricultural products. The bubble has burst. If Europe should become engulphed in a general war, or her soil refuse to yield its fruit, the Tariff of '46 would work benignly. But while the nations of the earth are at peace, and full harvests reward the husbandman of the old world, as well as the new, the principle of Protection is the true principle for this country. It keeps up a demand for the labor of the operative, and secures a steady home market for the product of the farmer.

The Issue.

HENRY NES, and the PROTECTIVE TARIFF of 1842.

JOEL B. DANNER, and the FREE TRADE TARIFF of 1846.

The issue is fully and fairly presented above. Let the Working-men of this Congressional District see to it that they return to Congress on present worthy Representative, Dr. NES, who has at ALL TIMES, and IN ALL PLACES, avowed and proved himself to be the firm, unyielding and uncompromising friend of the Tariff of 1842 and who will stand by the interests of the people on this subject.

How is it with his opponent, JOEL B. DANNER? It will not be denied that he is a FREE TRADE MAN, and every Locofoco newspaper in the District advocates the same anti-American doctrine. Should Danner be elected, he will vote to continue in operation the odious and ruinous Free Trade Tariff of 1846, which is now beginning to have fair play, and the effects of which some of our people are beginning to feel!

TARIFF-MEN—PENNSYLVANIANS!—WHICH WILL YOU VOTE FOR?—York Rep.

Dodging.

The York Republican of Wednesday last, says:—"We learn that JOEL B. DANNER—the cunning Joel—while on a visit to one of the Foundries in this Borough last week, soliciting votes, was asked by one of the hands, what were his views on the Tariff. He replied that on that question he would be bound by the wishes of his constituents! WHAT A BACKING OUT. If you ask Dr. NES, or any other friend of the Tariff, such a question, the reply would be—"I am for the Tariff of 1842, and opposed to the Tariff of 1846!" The fact of the business is, Joel is a FREE-TRADE MAN, but is afraid to say so! Let the Tariff men of the District, whenever Dr. NES or Joel comes to them, put the question plump, and they will find a difference between the answers of a TARIFF-MAN and a FREE-TRADE MAN! Joel is not cunning enough to "come the old soldier" over the mechanics of our town in "that loose kind of a way." They are not to be "caught with such chaff," and on the Second Tuesday of October they will show their appreciation of the honest, straight-forward Tariffism of Dr. NES, by rolling out of the Borough boxes somewhere in the neighborhood of FOUR HUNDRED MAJORITY for him! The thing can and will be done!"

The question of Free Soil is perhaps the great question of the campaign; but it is not the only question in which the Electors of the North, and the Whigs, everywhere, feel a deep interest. The necessity and utility of a Whig Tariff, is becoming every day more and more apparent. The immense importations of foreign manufactures within the past two years, have had a ruinous influence upon American labor. A great many manufacturing establishments have been compelled to suspend operations altogether; and a still greater number are obliged to work one half or three-quarters of the time. Thousands of industrious men have been thus thrown out of employment altogether, or so curtailed in their receipts as to find it difficult to support themselves and families comfortably. Is that policy a wise policy which thus cripples the labor of the country, and deprives the operative of a fair reward for his industry and skill?

Mr. Clay and the Presidency.—Certain members of the Whig party of Cincinnati, it seems, had addressed Mr. Clay, inviting him to assume an "independent position" with regard to the present canvass for the Presidency, and assuming him of the earnest support of numerous friends. In answer to this, Mr. Clay says, in substance:

"My name, gentlemen, was submitted by my consent to the consideration of the National Whig Convention, which met in Philadelphia, but which did not think proper to place me in nomination as a candidate for the Presidency.

"I have quietly submitted to the decision of that body, and cannot consent to any further consideration of my name in connection with the office of President of the United States; and accordingly, I have refrained from giving, and must continue to decline giving, the slightest encouragement or countenance to any such use of it."

Mr. HARPER.—In my letter to the Congress of this Congressional district, as published in your paper of the 11th inst., there occurs a typographical error, which, as it makes nonsense of the sentence in which it occurs, I will thank you to notice.

It occurs in the sentence commencing thus—"Numbering, as I do, in the ranks of that party many warm personal and political friends," &c. The word "political" is erroneously printed instead of "professional," which is the one used by me.

I had not noticed the error until my attention was drawn to it, by some structures in the "Compiler" of this week, upon my letter, based in part on this error of my compositor.

Respectfully yours,
DANIEL M. SMYER.

WM. CRANCH BOND, the eminent Astronomer of Cambridge University, in Massachusetts, and his son and assistant, GEORGE BOND, discovered on the night of the 22d ult. another satellite of the planet Saturn, making the eighth. The two last satellites to Saturn were discovered by Herschell, and the discovery was hailed by astronomers as the appearance of a new continent would be by men in pursuit of a new world. The telescope at Cambridge is much the largest in this country, and more powerful than any in Europe. Mr. Bond and his son are devoted to their labors, and are engaged nightly in their explorations of the heavens.

The Rev. Dr. JENKINS has resigned the Presidency of Lafayette College at Easton, and has accepted the Presidency of Washington College at Lexington, Va.

The Second Tuesday of October!

The election day is near at hand! In one week from to-morrow, the Constitutional Convention will take place, and the question will then, in all probability, says the News, be decided, for whom the great State of Pennsylvania will go for the Presidency—Mr. Zachary Taylor, or Mr. Lewis Cass! If the friends of the hero of Buena Vista succeed in electing Wm. F. Johnston and Nor Middleswarth, the Keystone State may be regarded as safe beyond a doubt, for Gen. Taylor; but if through unwisdom and indifference, these gallant standard bearers be defeated, then success in November next may not be over certain.

Friends of Taylor and Fillmore! of Johnston and Middleswarth! throughout the length and breadth of the Commonwealth, we beg leave to ask you, in all seriousness, ARE YOU PREPARED? If you are not, then go to work in every township and district, and organize for the contest! You have not a moment to lose. Now is the time for action. You have every motive presented to you to induce you to be active. You need but cumulate the activity, energy and perseverance of your Locofoco opponents, and certain victory will follow your exertions. The friends of Home Labor and of Free Soil, have a decided majority in the State; but each and every one in favor of these measures must be brought to the polls to make success certain.

Arouse, therefore, ye friends of Taylor, buckle on your armor—do your duty—see that your whole vote is polled, and ALL WILL BE WELL! Discharge the high and important trust devolving upon you as Republicans, as friends of Freedom, and as supporters of American Industry.

HOLDEN'S MAGAZINE, for October, is already on our table, filled with entertaining and useful matter, as usual. It contains a number of fine engravings illustrative of the subjects with which they are connected. Those who wish a literary treat can get no better for a dollar, than is furnished by Holden in his cheap Magazine. Address orders, post paid, to C. W. Holden, 109 Nassau street, New York.

A most destructive fire took place at Constantinople on the 16th of August. It raged from 7 in the evening until 3 o'clock the next morning. The fire consumed 2500 shops filled with valuable goods, and 500 houses, 40 of which were splendid palaces; 19 khans, 7 mosques, 4 baths, 2 public granaries, a government steam mill, and 17 vessels. The loss is estimated at four millions of pounds sterling. About 20 persons lost their lives.

Dr. JACOB L. MARTIN, American Charge d'Affaires at Rome, died in that city about the 1st of September, very suddenly. He was found dead in his bed. He was a native of North Carolina, and much esteemed for his amiable character.

A letter to the Editors of the National Intelligencer, from a reliable source in the State of Ohio, speaking of the Abolitionists and Free Soil Van Buren men, emphatically says—"These cannot prevent us from carrying Ohio for Taylor and Fillmore by a triumphant majority—certainly larger than Mr. Clay's, though not so large as Harrison's."

The New York Sun relates a singular instance of a child of Professor Mapes, of that city, who was partially imbecile, and has been restored to intelligence by a fall. The little girl fell from a window and fractured her skull extensively. It seemed that the skull had previously been too small for the brain of the child, and the fracture, by giving it more room, and relieving it from undue pressure of the bone, restored the suspended intellectual functions.

The Hon. WM. J. GRAVES, one of the Whig Electors for Kentucky, died on Wednesday last.

SKIES BRIGHT!

New York.—The New York Journal of Commerce says: "It is now very evident that the thirty-six electoral votes of New York will be given to Taylor and Fillmore. Many of the Free Soilers begin to think they have soiled their fingers, and are getting out of the scrape as well as they can. Even Cass's vote in this State will be larger than Van Buren's. Many of the Barnburners will vote for him, and others for Taylor. They don't like their new connections."

Tennessee.—The Nashville Whig says that half of that State has now been well canvassed, and from the information we have received from the most reliable sources, we say to the Whigs of other States, "Tennessee stands as firm as a rock. Have no apprehensions whatever about her vote. She goes for Taylor by a large majority."

Ohio.—The Whig Sun shines brightly in Ohio. The Cincinnati Atlas says: "Of Ohio, we can say that every step taken in the actual canvass shows the Whig prospect brighter. We know that in some of what are called disaffected counties, the falling off of the Whig vote is next to nothing. The ballot-box will astonish those who supposed that the great Whig party of Ohio was to be moved from its firm moorings by every wind of new doctrine."

A Funny Platform.—Here are two planks from the Buffalo platform, on which Mr. Van Buren and Mr. C. F. Adams are striving so hard to stand side by side:

The Mexican War.—The Mexican War—"It is due to the future! The present war with fame, as well as the Mexico is unconstitutional prosperity, optional in its origin, and this great nation, that just in its character, and it is triumphantly successful in its obtained."—Martin Van Buren.—Charles F. Adams.

If they did not hate each other too cordially, Messrs. Van Buren and Adams could not look each other in the face without laughing at the ridiculous position they occupy before the country.—N. Y. Courier.

TAYLOR MEETINGS.

Great Demonstration of the Friends of Taylor, Fillmore and Johnston, in the York Springs Election District!!!

A very large and highly respectable meeting of the Whig party, was held in Petersburg, (Y. S.) on Saturday afternoon the 23d ult. The meeting was called to order by FRANKLIN GARDNER, on behalf of the Committee of Arrangement, and was organized by the selection of the following officers:

President,
Col. JOHN WOLFORD.

Vice Presidents,
Capt. William Jones, Jacob Gardner, sr., Wm. B. Mullin, Thomas M. Cleary, Jasaph Abbey, Col. Wm. F. Bonner, Jas. A. Thompson, Harman Wiernan, William Arnold, Samuel Metzger, Chas. Kettlevell, John Sadler, sr., Jacob Greist, Jacob Hersch.

Secretaries,
J. A. Gardner, D. A. Buehler, Isaac Greist.

The meeting was eloquently and ably addressed by A. G. EGR, Esq., of Taneytown, and EDWARD BALZELL, Esq., of Frederick, Md., upon the great issues of the present campaign, and the claims of Gen. Zachary Taylor upon the Whigs and true Democrats for their support. They made a complete expose of the principles of Lewis Cass, and his "extra" claims. They contrasted the military and civil services of General Lewis Cass—the Hero of the broken sword, who received $63,000 as extra compensation for extraordinary services, with those of General Zachary Taylor, the "old Hero" who never surrenders—who never received one cent for extra services, although he periled his life in the sanguinary and hard-fought battles of Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma, Monterrey and Buena Vista, for the glory and honor of his country.

THOMAS STEVENS, Esq., of Lancaster, was next called for. He appeared on the stand, and eloquently and forcibly addressed his old friends and neighbors on the importance of the approaching elections, and the necessity of the Whigs presenting an undivided front to the opponents of Old Zack and the whole Whig ticket. Mr. Stevens defended, in his fearless and convincing manner, the Protective Policy, and the non-extension of Slavery. He commented strongly upon the views of Lewis Cass upon these topics, and proved conclusively that the advocates of the Wilmot proviso, and the friends of Free Soil, could not consistently cast their suffrages for Cass, nor throw their votes away upon Van Buren,—but should go to the polls and vote for Gen. Taylor, who is opposed to the extension of Slavery, and the improper use of the Veto Power.

The meeting was also addressed by D. M. SWYSEN, Esq., and Hon. JAMES COOPER. Mr. Swyssen, with the same magnanimity that induced him to yield up his well-earned and acknowledged claims, to Dr. NES, appeared before the meeting, and advocated the re-election of Dr. NES to Congress as a man in whom the people could safely confide their interests.

Mr. COOPER spoke of the various candidates upon the Whig ticket, and urged that they were good and true men, and should be supported by every Whig in the county.

Hon. HENRY NES was also present, but was prevented from addressing the meeting, by indisposition.

The thanks of the meeting were then tendered by the President, to the gentlemen who had addressed them on this occasion. The President also announced that a meeting would be held in the Academy that evening, and that it would be addressed by D. M. COOPER, Esq. of Gettysburg. The meeting then adjourned.

The Whig Fires Burn Brightly.

The Petersburg Academy was filled with an enthusiastic audience, in the evening, and the meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers, viz:

President—JACOB GREIST.

Vice Presidents—Thomas Stephens, Charles Lafferty, Uriah Gardner, James Wilson, Isaac Thomas.

Secretary—J. A. Gardner.

The President, on taking the Chair, made some very appropriate remarks relative to the election of Gen. Taylor as President of the United States.

D. M. COOPER, Esq. of the "Young Guard," being present, was called upon to address the meeting, which he did in a most eloquent and impressive speech. His address was interspersed with argument, wit and anecdote. He spoke for one hour and a half upon the leading questions at issue between the two parties, and the frequent applause which he elicited, evinced the satisfaction and pleasure with which his speech was listened to. THOMAS STEVENS, Esq. of the "Old Guard," notwithstanding his hoarseness, could not resist the repeated calls of the audience, and gave them another round of grape from his intellectual battery.—His speech was listened to with that marked attention that Mr. Stevens always commands, whenever he speaks. He was frequently interrupted by applause during the delivery of his speech.

On motion of Maj. W. W. HAMERSLEY, the thanks of the meeting were tendered to Messrs. Stevens and M. Conaughy, for their eloquent addresses.

The meeting then adjourned to meet on Saturday evening, the 7th of October. Three cheers were given for STEVENS, three for M. COOPER, three hearty cheers for "OLD ROUGH AND READY," and three for THE WHOLE WHIG TICKET.

Mr. STEVENS remarked that if we kept on cheering until the Election, no doubt we would feel very cheerful afterwards.

The condition of some of our most important domestic interests of the manufacturing kind is at this time silently, but powerfully attesting the evil which the country suffers by the loss of the Tariff of 1842. The iron interest is subject to especial depression. The coal trade, in like manner,—a trade in which Pennsylvania is particularly interested, to say nothing of Maryland and Virginia,—not only partakes of the torpor under which its kindred interest suffers, but experiences a direct check itself by the influx of Nova Scotia coal from Pictou and Sydney.

It is not worth while to go into any argument on this subject. It has been discussed for the last eight years or more, and if it is not understood in reference to its principles, it can sometimes make itself felt by the practical nature of its facts. The facts must speak for themselves—they are speaking for themselves now.
